

REGISTER NOW

ON-GOING AUDIOLOGICAL ASSESSMENT FOR INFANTS AND TODDLERS

Enhance your knowledge and skills in these areas

- Variables that must be considered in hearing assessment and fitting amplification
- Selection and fitting of amplification for infants and toddlers
- Validation of hearing instrumentation
- The use of ABR data in the DSL Method
- Appropriate hearing instrument verification procedures
- Behavioral audiological evaluation
- Determining candidacy for cochlear implants
- Selecting a surgeon and implant center

Hands-on training with clinical equipment

On-line Component

(On-line materials and one hour weekly chat room)

November 1, 2004 – December 13, 2004

Choose the chat room time that works for you:

Mondays 11/8-12/13 8am or 7pm

Tuesdays 11/9-12/14 8am or 8pm

On-Site Workshop

Featuring: Dr. Richard Seewald
Dr. Judith Gravel
Dr. Antonia Maxon

	Redondo Beach	OR	San Mateo
January 10	8am to 7pm		January 13 8am to 7pm
January 11	9am to 7pm		January 14 9am to 7pm
January 12	8am to 4pm		January 15 8am to 4pm

This program may be worth a maximum of 3.2 CEUs (32 hours)
(pending AAA approval)

Registration Fee: $175

Register on-line at www.infanthearing.org

Training by the National Center for Hearing Assessment and Management
Sponsored by the California Department of Health Services
Children's Medical Services Branch

Funded by a grant from the Maternal and Child Health Bureau (H61 MC 00095-01)

For more information, contact the California Newborn Hearing Screening Program at nhsp3@dhs.ca.gov